Funny, Touching, and Wonderful!

By EB

Whenever I hear Baxter Black's name mentioned on NPR, my ears take notice. And excerpts from this, his latest offering, are just plain funny, touching, and wonderful! (Note, the poem about his first dance with his daughter and his poem about his pickup truck.) He makes the most common of things and events come sharply into focus until they become uncommonly interesting. If you're looking for entertainment that won't offend the senses and leaves you with that fresh after the rain sense of serenity, you won't do any better than Baxter Black!

A Cowful of Cowboy Poetry worth every penny

By Sarah Tebeau

This collection from Baxter Black is a wonderful herd of wild stories and wonderful poetry. He really touches the spirit and tickles the funny bone with his wonderful wit and cowboy wisdom. This book also has great illustrations for every poem or story. You won't regret this purchase, I know I treasure my copy. Don't miss this great poet in one of his finest publications
