Supergood despite being in Italian

By Earle Bowers

I've enjoyed all of Yamatogawa's graphic novel's that I've been able to get in English without exception, and bought this one in Italian, which I do not read or speak, because it was the only way to get a copy. I am not disappointed! Even though I could not read the text I could follow the story well enough from the illustrations so that I definately think that the five star rating I give it here is diserved even for others who, like me, can read only English. Of particular pleasure to me are so many of his female characters who are intelligent (often college students) and assertively pro-sexual though not domineering. None of that sort of "oh no, I'm so embarrassed" (girl reaction) male seduction verging on rape which I find so common and disagreeable in much Japanese porn.
