A good read!

By stacey

I loved Zombie World. There were many things I greatly appreciated about the plot and the improvement of the writing style. I loved Zombie Island, wasn't a huge fan on Zombie Country, but this was amazing. Samantha's writing style definitely matured, which made for a well-rounded novel. I loved Sam and Ryder's relationship, it felt true and not at all forced. This book had me crying and laughing at times. It also had my heart fluttering when Ryder was sweet to Sam. The main characters had plenty of depth, but the supporting cast could've had more to them. (IE: Todd) Overall, it was an amazing read and I will be reading more of her work. This book is well worth the price, if you like Zombies I suggest you read this series!

Worst one out of the series. Not enough action doesn't get interesting until the last third of the book.
